the past week at Big Stone Gap, where she has been the guest of Miss Angle Manning Taylor. Miss Branch will leave shortly for the North, where she will spend some time before going to the Greenbrier White Sulrphur Springs for the late summer season. To Sail From France.

A cablegram has been received by Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Cary, announcing the sailing of their daughter, Miss Pat-tie Albert Cary, from France. Miss Cary has been in France since Novem-1918, actively engaged in Y. M. C.

A. work.

Brilliant Marriage in Dinwiddle.

A beautiful marriage took place
Tuesday at noon in Manson Methodist Church, Dinwiddle, when Olive Adeline Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and number of troops in Camp Lee since Mrs. A. G. Ferguson, became the wife of John William Rives, of Blackstone. The church was decorated with ferns and roses, the color scheme being green and white. The bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's March, rendered by Mrs. Blair Maben Greene, of Blackstone, and Rev. Harvey A. Glauss, of McKenney, performed the ceremony. Miss Sadie Ferguson, sister of the bride, was her maid of honor, and wore a pink Georgette frock, and carried pink carnations. C. Wilson Rives, of Crewe, was best man. There were four bridesmalds—Misses Louise Doyle and Myrtis White, of McKenney; Sara Ferguson, of Washington, and Salie Wilkinson, of Richmond. They were white organdle and Louise Doyle and Myrtis White, of McKenney; Sara Ferguson, of Washington, and Sallie Wilkinson, of Richmond. They were white organdle and carried pink carnations. The grooms of brother of the bride; Carroll Rives, of William and Mary College; Ashby C. Biackwell, of Randolph-Macon College, and Jack Davis, of Biackwell, of Chand William and Mary College; Ashby C. Biackwell, of Randolph-Macon College, and Jack Davis, of Biackwell, of Chand William and Bertie Webb were flower girs, and wore white voile dressee. The gates pass through by John Marshall Tucker and Leonard C. Barrow, Jr. The bride wore a handsome ruit of blue serge, with hat and gloves to match, and carried a shower bouquet of sweet pens. The service Circle of the First Presbyerian Church will hold a bazaar at the Jefferson Hotel in the ballroom on Friday evening at the booths will vest famp. Altanic City.

A thankie City in attendance upon the excessions of the city and the properties of the city and the properties folk, when their piece, Miss Fleetie Lois Ellett, of Crewe, became the bride of Charles H. Fletcher, Rev. O. L. Riggs officiating. The reception hall and parlors were decorated with potted plants, ferns and daisies. Miss Elizabeth Shuster lighted the candles, followed by Misses Celeste Tunstall and Mildred Shaughnessy, carrying baskets of daisies. Little Anna Shaughnessy, dressed in white organdie and yellow ribbons, preceded the bride, and her matron. Mrs. J. B. Ross, Jr., carrying the ring in a silver tray. "Hearts and Flowers" was rendered by Miss Mildred Shuster during the ceremony. The bride wore a goingaway gown of Mildred Shuster during the ceremony. The bride wore a goingaway gown of midnight blue tricotine, with hat and gloves to match, and a corsage bouquet of sunset roses. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher left for New York.

Southall—Morrisette.
Robert Edward Southall, of Jetersville, Amelia County, and Miss Beatrice Elizabeth Morrisette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Morrisette, of Rice, were Elizabeth Morrisette, daugnter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Morrisette, of Rice, were married on Wednesday, June 4, at the Methodist parsonage, Burkeville, Rev. Otis M. Clarke officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Southall will be at home, near Jetersville, after a short bridal trip.

IN AND OUT OF TOWN.

Miss Mary Builington, who has been attending Hollins College this session, is at Blue Ridge, N. C. for the student conference of the Y. W. C. A. irs. J. D. Cox. of Winterville, N. C., is and ing a few days with Rev. and Mrs. lliam Edward Cox at the rectory of the urch of the Holy Comforter, 2119 Grove

Avenue.

Mrs. T. H. Vaden has returned to Norfolk. after a week's visit to Mrs. A. B.
Huicher. of 2428 Hanover Avenue.

Mrs. Thomas Rollins Marshall, of Gloucester County, is the guest of Mrs. Harold Ballard at her home in Ruxton, Md. Mrs. M. L. Atkins and her daughter, of Gloucester County, have been recent guests of Miss Louise Schultz, at 2003 West Main Street.

REVOKES CHARTER OF UNION

Declared Strikes Ordered in Canada Were Contrary to Regulations of Brotherhood.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Martin F. Ryan, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Carmen, has revoked the charter of the two local unions of that order at Winnipeg and a third at Edmonton, Canada, it was announced at American Federation of Labor headquarters, on the ground that action of their members in appropriating money for organization of the "one big union" which has led to the strike now progressing in Western Canada, and is a disregard of union law. Other heads of international unions are said to be preparing similar orders affecting their crafts. By Associated Press.

MAKING BUILDING PLANS

Lynchburg Arranging to Provide Homes Houses.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, VA., June 8.—An effort is being made here by a committee named by the Chamber of Commerce to cope with a situation arising by the absence of houses for rent, and a plan is being worked upon to aid employees of concerns of the city to finance their own building. Along with this is being planned a home building campaign, in which many advantages are to be offered prospective home builders. Recently there has been great activity in realty, and now there are evidences of a building boom.

Proceeds of Image of Emperor Joseph Will Go to Feeding of Vienna's Poor.

VIENNA, June 8.—The magnificent statue of Emperor Francis Joseph in Willener Neustadt is to be melted and the money which the moliten bronze will bring is to be used to buy food for Vienna's poor, the City Council has decided.

The Council also resolved to change the names of all streets and squares named after members of the house of Hapsburg or former leaders of the late Austro-Hungarian army.

SOCIETY RECRUITING TAKES RAPID

Office Located Where Men Get Dis-

MANY BENEFITS EXPLAINED

Advantages Are Pointed Out by number of troops in Camp Lee since wes to match and carried a shower iquet of sweet peas. The wedding rch was rendered by Mrs. A. Gultz.

he bride is the only daughter of Maria Louisa Atkins, of "Free lecome," Gloucester County and the om, who has just completed his isterial course at Louisville Semitive From Mathews County. After 10 they will be at home in Fair-S. C. where he has accepted ge of the Baptist Church.

The Many Men Wounded.

"Now the difficulty arose of getting telephonic connection with all units and the rear. The creek and flooded area were continually shelled by the Austrian $85s, and the American telephone men under this exceptionally intense fire carried apparatus, wire and other material through the bombarded swamp to the regimental headquarters, well as stretching up all the battallons, as well as stretching several lines to the Many E. Ware of these men were charge of the Haptist Church.

Quiet Wedding.

Mrs. Mary E. Ware, of Richmond, and William Duffy, of Denver, Col., were quietly married at the home of the Rev. Mr. Stewart Thursday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, with only a few littimate friends present. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Duffy left for a short stay in Washington, Baltimore and New York.

Norfolk Wedding.

A pretty wedding was solemnized June 4 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Schuster, on Colonial Avenue, Norfolk, when their niece, Miss Fleetle Lois Ellett, of Crewe, became the bride of Charles H. Fletcher, Rev. O. L.

"This is only a typical istance of the loyalty, determination and valor shown by our troops, and I am confident that the early training and army life, with its high ideals and healthy companions, has been very largely responsible in fostering that spirit of absolute dependability so essential to the success in battle and the worth while occupations in civil life. Only in the service can this spirit be developed, because the army breeds in its soldiers unconsciously and each man has either a conscious or subconscious conviction that he must do his duty, not because he fears punishment, but because of his inherited high sense of honor and unselfishness." unselfishness.

COMMENCEMENT STARTS AT UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA

Bishop William Frazer McDowell De-livers Baccalaurente Sermon at Charlottesville.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., June The commencement exercises of the ninety-fourth session of the University of Virginia—a session memorable

The commencement exercises of the ninety-fourth session of the University of Virginia—a session memorable in academic experience, the institution having begun the term as a military post—opened at 11 o'clock this morning, when the baccalaureate sermon was preached in the chapel by Bishop William Frazer McDowell, of Washington, D. C. At 8 o'clock tonight there was an organ recital in Cabell Hall by Mr. Henry H. Freeman, instructor in church organ playing in the Washington College of Music, and conductor of the Washington Oratorio Society.

Tomorrow afternoon there will be a band concert on the lawn, and at 8 o'clock will occur the annual initiation of new members into Phi Beta Kappa, the list including such well-known alumni as Senator Thomas S. Martin (67), former Congressman Swager Sherley (91), of Loulsville, Ky.; Samuel J. Barnett (96), of Columbus, O.; Walter T. Page (82), of Omaha, Neb., and Walter D. Blair (96), of New York City. The Phi Beta Kappa address will be delivered by Dean Frederick J. E. Woodbridge, of Columbia University. The social event of the day will be the dance by the German Club, in the Fayweather Gymnasium.

The closing exercises of St. Anne's Schools for Girls, an Episcopal institution located in this city, were ushered in with a studio ten from 4 to 6 o'clock yeserday aftenoon. Special honors in art work were won by Miss Alice Ward, of Washington, and Miss Henrietta May West, of Oak Grove, Va., members of the senior class; Miss Eunice Michie, of Charlottesville, a junior, and Miss I. Nelson Hawse, of Baltimore, a sophomore.

STATUE WILL BE MELTED

Proceeds of Image of Emperor Joseph Will Go to Feeding of Vienna's Poor.

TWELVE VIRGINIA BANKS

Many Applications for Charters Are Received by Comptroller John Skelton Williams.

office Located Where Men Get Discharge Papers and Lectures Are Given.

MANY BENEFITS EXPLAINED

Advantages Are Pointed Out by Officers—Story Is Told of Experiences of Soldiers During Fighting in France.

CAMP LEE, June 8.—With a great number of troops in Camp Lee since demobilization has started recruiting has taken a rapid rise. Since the first of June 109 men have recruiting has taken a rapid rise. Since the first of June 109 men have recruiting has taken a rapid rise. Since the first of June 109 men have recruiting has taken a rapid rise. Since the advantages of an army career are set forth.

Every Gay there are stories told by the men who have returned of the benefits of army training and how it the men who have returned of the shood them in good stead during hardships, trials and tribulations, so much so that the men who are returning to civilian life are carrying mature thoughts with them.

That twelve banks in Virginia have applied for authority to increase their capital, among many other requests, was the statement made yesterday by John Skelton Williams.

That twelve banks in Virginia have applied for authority to increase their capital, among many other requests, was the statement made yesterday by John Skelton Williams, Comptroller of the Currency. Acomption of already organized banks are flooding his office. In his statement yesterday he said:

Since January 1, 1919, there have been received 312 requests for new been received 312 requests. There are discharged banks are flooding his office. In his statement yesterday by John Skelton Williams, Comptroller of capital, among many other requests, and perfect of authority to increase their capital, among many other requests, and perfect of a ready sattement applications for charters and perfect of already organized banks are flooding his office. In his statement yesterday by John Skelton Williams, Comptroller of already organized banks are flooding his office. In his statement yesterday by John Skelton Williams, Comptroller of already organized banks are

May 19, 1919, were several hundred million dollars ahead of the greatest ever shown at any call; but the final compilation of the returns has not yet heen completed

TMELVE WILL GRADUATE

Commencement Exercises Will B Held at Big Stone Gap Next Mon-day Night.

Ispecial to The Times-Dispatch.]

ISpecial to The Times-Dispatch.]

BIG STONE GAP, VA., June 8.—Big

Stone Gap High School is among the scores of Virginia high schools which will hold commencement exercises next Monday night, June 16. The senior class this year numbers twelve young men and women. William Clifford Smith is president of the class and valedictorian. Miss Helen Byrnside
McCormick is vice-president and salutatorian. Kenneth Ray Wolfe secretary and treasurer and Miss Beulah Ella
Shelton historian.

The testator of the class is Miss
Virginia Alberta Baker and Miss Elste
Elizabeth Taylor is mottoist. Miss lizabeth Taylor is mottoist. Miss lilet Parilee Knight is class prophet, iss Famie Jenette Ray, giftorian and William Tayenor Goodloe, class

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LYNCHBURG, VA., June 7.—George Coleman, State Highway Commis-loner, has notified the good roads busioner, has notified the good roads bureau of the Chamber of Commerce here that the State will at once begin the repairing of the Amherst turnpike, which is soon to be a portion of the Danville to Afton road, which will connect the Valley Turnpike with the North Carolina system of public roads. Portions of the turnpike to be re-surfaced are to be completed by December and other stretches in September. This will give Amherst County a hardroad from its southern line at Lynchurg to the Nelson County line, where work is already under way on the highway which will carry the improvement on in the direction of Afton, which is located near the top of the Blue Ridge. Blue Ridge.

Increase Size of Plant.
LYNCHRURG, VA., June 8.—The Jobbers Overall Company here has let contract for the erection of a six-story reinforced addition to its plant, giving increased floor space of 72,000 square feet, making an aggregate of 178,000 square feet in plant, aside from a large hotel and dormitory operated for the plant. This will give employment to 500 additional girls.

ASK TO INCREASE CAPITAL ROANOKE COLLEGE HOLDS

President of Lutheran Church of America Delivers Baccalaureate

College began Sunday morning in the College began Sunday morning in the Tabernacle at Salem, with the baccalaureate address by Dr. Frederick H. Knubel, of New York. The baccalaureate speaker is president of the United Lutheran Church of America. A special chorus composed of members of the choirs of the churches of Salem provided the music for the exercises Sunday morning. The chorus was under the direction of Mrs. G. G. Peery. The commencement program will continue through Wednesday. On Mon. meeting of the board of trustees will be held. At the same time the field day exercises will take place on the athletic field. At 8 o'clock Monday evening the orators' contest will be held in the tabernacle. The contest-ants will be: Carroll Beach, of Luray; Homer K. Bowen, of Pembroke: Harley E. Erb. of Roanoke; William Atkinson, of Roanoke.

million dollars ahead of the greatest ever shown at any call; but the final compilation of the returns has not yet been completed.

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN

TO LECTURE HERE TONIGHT

Opens Southern Speaking Tour With Address at Fredericksburg Earlier in Day.

William Jennings Bryan will speak tonight at the City Auditorium on "Law Enforcement," his address having largely to do with the problems of prohibition. He comes to Riemmond under the auspices of the Anti-Saloon League of America.

Before reaching the city Mr. Bryan will speak in Fredericksburg. He is making a three weeks 'tour of nine Scutharn States. The committee named to receive Mr. Bryan in Richmond is composed of Oliver J. Sands, W. W. Moore, J. J. Bravatt, John S. Munce and O. A. Hawkins.

There will be no charge for admission, but a collection will be taken. Music will be furnished by the committee value of the school. Everywhere and O. A. Hawkins.

There will be furnished by the committee value of the school. Everywhere weeks will begin at $15.5 o'clock.

The address will begin at $15.5 o'clock.

Big other articles of ciothing.

Realty Deals in Amherst.

AMHERST, June S.—In the past week there have been several real estate deals at Amherst. J. H. Whitten has bid to Mrs. A. J. White. of Sandidges his residence on the Amherst-Clifford road, and Whitten has purchased of Dr. J. G. Kearfott a building lot, Judge John W. Davis, of Texas, who recently came to Amherst, has purchased of L. C. Gregory a tract of sixteen acres of land on the Amherst-Clifford road, the purchase price being $4.500. Judge Davis will erest on this property a handsome bungalow.

Fin Fatal to Danvill—

See DANVILLE.

Miss Fannie Jennette Ray, giftorian and William Tavenor Goodloe, class poet.

Other members of the graduating class are Miss Susie Maxie Kilgore, Edward Everett Goodloe. Jr., and Thurman Hagan Kennedy.

START ROAD WORK SOON

Highway Commissioner Announces Plans to Repnir Amherst Turn pike Near Lynchburg.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LYNCHBURG, VA., June 7.—George P. Coleman, State Highway Commissioner Allan Morrissett, and a brother, Allan Morrissett, and a brother, Allan Morrissett, The funeral will be held tomorrow evening.

Dance Will Face Court.
DANVILLE, June 8.-W. R. Da who is indicted on a charge of bezzlement, irregularities while he secretary and treasurer of the I secretary and treasurer of the Dan-ville Creamery being alleged, will be put on trial early this week in the Corporation Court. He has been in Dies in Porch Swing.

LYNCHBURG, VA., June 8.—E. L. Kidd, clerk of the Circuit Court of Nelson County for twenty-one years and a candidate for re-election, died suddenly at his home at Lovingston Friday evening. After spending the day at his office he went home late complaining of feeling ill. He dropped down in a north swing and died almost down in a porch swing and died a most immediately.

RHEUMATISM Large Bottles $1.50-Guaranteed

it or you never can keep well. If you wake with a bad taste in the mouth, coated tongue, perhaps headache, your liver is torpid. A torpid liver deranges the whole system, produces dyspepsia, costiveness and piles. There

Try them just once and be eternally convinced. For sale by all druggists. Dr. Tutt's Liver Pills

COUPLE MARRIED IN 1869 TO OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. August Meyer Will Keep "Open House" Tomorrow Afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. August Meyer, of 1725 Delaware Avenue, Highland Park, will keep "open house" tomorrow afternoon and evening for their friends in cele-bration of the fiftieth anniversary of their marrians.

JUNE TERM OPENS MONDAY

Amherst Circuit Court Calendar Has
One Murder Case—Other News
Notes From Various Points in
State of Virginia.

bration of the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage.

Mrs. Meyer was Miss Ellen Blackburn, of Henrico County. She and Mr. Meyer were married at her father's house in Henrico by Rev. T. G. Dashiell June 19, 1869.

For nearly fifty years Mr. Meyer was make-up and assistant foreman in the composing-room of the old Richmond Dispatch and afterward worked on The Times-Dispatch.

State of Virginia.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

SALEM, VA., June 8.—The annual commencement exercises of Roanoke

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Mr. and Mrs. Meyer have a son, George E. Meyer, and two daughters, Misses Nora and Augusta Meyer.

U. S. EXPORTS TRIPLE

Finished Manufactures Are Now Going Out at Rate of $6,300,000 Daily.

Exports of finished manufactures from the United States in the half year following the close of the war are three times as much in value as in the corresponding period preceding the war. A compilation by the Na-

Court Term to Open.

AMHERST, June 8.—The June term of the Amherst Circuit Court will convent Monday, Judge B. T. Gordon presiding. This is a regular grand jury to the court of the America, Asia, Oceania and Africa, all America, Asia, Oceania and Africa, all f which are large consumers of manufactures. In fact, manufactures form over 80 per cent of our exports to South America and Asia, 90 per cent of those to Oceania, 68 per cent of those to North America.

AFTER 1920 CONVENTION

Richmond Rotarians Will He Asked to Help Atlantic City Land Gathering.

Garbee, George Eubank, Elliott Shrader, J. T. Jennings, Samuel H. Richeson and Richard Adams. The murder case of Seaton Robertson, charged with killing his brother, Wesley Robertson, will be tried at this term of the court.

Display Gingham Frocks.

FREDERICKSBURG, June 8.—The commencement exercises of the Fredericksburg State Normal School are in full blast. The household arts department exhibit, under the direction of Miss Marie Walters, was held in the auditorium of the school. Everywhere garments of distinction could be seen. Garments were on display from the plain gingham frock to the beautifully headed Gergette commencement dress, ril the work of the students of the department. The display of garments was one of the largest and the styles the most distinctive in the history of the school. Besides the dresses there were hand embroidered undergarments of every variety, spring, summer and winter hats and various other articles of clothing.

Realty Deals in Amherst.

THE KAUFMANN STORE

June Vacation Sale Of New

WAISTS

(In the Basement)

$1.50 and $1.95

S CORES of these Waists were bought special for this sale. Women who come here expecting a sale of odds and ends will surely be disappointed. Crisp and newly unpacked, these white self-striped, corded, figured, plain and printed Voiles are delightful. There are Organdies and Linons also in tailored and fancy styles. Values $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00, for this sale, $1.50 and $1.95.

T. 6-9-19

MONTAGUE MFG. CO., Tenth and Main Streets,
Richmond, Va.
LUMBER—ROUGH AND DRESSED.

the right tenant. Call Randolph 1.

Have You Rooms to Reut

A Times-Dispatch Want Ad will get

HAVE the best CHEWING GUM at your yesmade by FLEER

Our Fire:

Thanks to our city's efficient FIRE DEPART-MENT, was confined to our warehouses. Our store was undamaged.

We are prepared to take care of our customers' needs and still maintain our reputation for

Warren Paint

UNITED STATES RAILROAD ADMINISTRATION Director General of Railroads,

Southern Railroad Lines

SUMMER EXCURSION FARES

From RICHMOND, VA.

ASHEVILLE, N. C.$20.52 HENDERSONVILLE, N. C.$21.66 WAYNESVILLE, N. C.$22.08 TRYON, N. C.$21.66 LÁKE JUNALUSKA, N. C......$21.90 | SALUDA, N. C.$21.66 FLAT ROCK, N. C.$21.66 | BLACK MOUNTAIN, N. C.$19.68 BREVARD, N. C.$22.86 HICKORY, N. C.$16.02 RIDGECREST, N. C.$19.56 | HIGHLAND LAKE, N. C.$21.66 (War Tax extra)

> AND MANY OTHER ATTRACTIVE RESORTS Tickets on Sale Now. Final Limit October 31st.

SPEND YOUR VACATION IN THE GLORIOUS MOUNTAINS OF WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA

Golf, Tennis, Horseback Riding, Motoring, Fishing, Camping

> LIVE OUTDOORS IN

"THE LAND OF THE SKY"

CONVENIENT SCHEDULES

830 East Main Street.

THROUGH SERVICE

CONSOLIDATED TICKET OFFICES

Telephone Randolph 424.